

California

Criteria for Candidates

When considering candidates for President-Elect, Governors, Secretary, Treasurer, and District Vice Presidents, the Nominating Committee takes into account:

1. Guidelines for the office as per our State Standing Rules May 2017 (pages 2-5)
2. The following leadership qualities as follows:

Leadership Qualities

1. Candidate understands and is aligned with Women's Council of REALTORS® Mission, Values and Purpose.
2. Candidate is an effective spokesperson, having the leadership ability to articulate a vision for success for Women's Council and advocate Women's Council Mission Vision, Purpose and Objectives.
3. Candidate has the stature and character to lead and influence others.
4. Candidate has demonstrated leadership experience and ability in a team setting.
5. Candidate possesses critical thinking skills.
6. Candidate is open to new ideas and concepts, even when taking a new direction may involve risk-taking.
7. Candidate is persistent in supporting board-approved Women's Council policies, even if they are unpopular to some.
8. Candidate possesses presentation skills and presence to serve as the State's spokesperson and leader.
9. Candidate possesses a deep knowledge of Women's Council and while representing the State, is able to counsel members and local officers regarding objectives, policies, and priorities regardless of network size or geographic location.
10. Candidate is able to set up alternative management of her/his business to allow the candidate to commit herself/himself to the amount of time, attention and energy required by the office.